On Stage

Performances:

Friday and Saturday evenings |

May 5, 6, 12, 13*, 19, 20 at 8PM;

Sunday, May 14 matinee at 2:30 PM.

The ultimate British farce had them rolling in the aisles in London (for NINE years)! A clever taxi driver finds a way to have TWO wives in opposite ends of London because of his crazy (but convenient!) work schedule. When a bump on the head piles hilarious complication upon complication, the cabbie tries to keep his zany double life from exploding! "Run for Your Wife should run for life" ... "I was exhausted from laughing so hard."

Director, Adam Konowe

Assistant Director, Brian Farrell

Producers, Lee Ann Hoffman and Karen Schlumpf

Run for Your Wife

by Ray Cooney

*The Saturday, May 13th performance will be sign interpreted for the deaf and hearing impaired.
